

Future member of SCFEA,

As president of South Carolina Festival and Event Association (SCFEA) I want to personally invite you to become a member of South Carolina's most prestigious event planners association. SCFEA is an association dedicated to providing the resources one needs to be a successful event planner in South Carolina. The association is made up of all types of people in the events industry. This includes full time and part time festival organizers, amusement vendors, entertainers, etc.

I personally believe the relationships and networking opportunities I have experienced as a member of SCFEA are the most important benefit the association provides. However, as a member there are many more resources you have at your disposal to make your life easier as an event planner. I have listed a few services that SCFEA offers to its members:

- Annual convention, trade show, & entertainment showcase
- Membership Directory with complete event and supplier listings and event calendar
- Certified Festival Planner Certification Program
- Internship Program with South Carolina Universities
- Affordable & convenient advertising opportunities
- Vendor & Membership database support
- Administrative support for any of your event related needs

I hope you will take the time to explore the rewards and benefits you can enjoy in becoming a member of SCFEA. Please feel free to call me at anytime with questions you might have about becoming a member.

Sincerely,
